Part Two – Comparison of Play and Movie versions of “A Christmas Carol” (34:11)

1. What type of a warehouse does Fezziwig own in which Scrooge is an apprentice? _____.
2. Unlike the play, we meet _____, Scrooge’s love, for first time at Fezziwig’s party.
3. When Belle meets Scrooge to break their “contract,” did you notice something about her dress?
_____
4. We discover that Belle has _____ which is not mentioned in the play.
5. To end the scene with the Ghost of Christmas Past, in the movie we watch Scrooge place a _____ over the spirit to cover its light, and then we see him wrestling with his bedroom _____.
6. The second spirit appears at _____ o’clock.
7. We do not witness the Ghost of Christmas Present sprinkle _____ onto the people to make them happy in the movie. Instead when asked if his torch has special powers, he replied yes.
8. Listen carefully and once again you will hear Fred’s last name. It’s _____.
9. Notice something unusual regarding the potatoes which were served for the Cratchit meal? _____
_____.
10. What word game do they play at Fred’s party? _____.
11. While the partygoers are playing their word game, listening carefully and you will hear the name of Fred’s wife, which is _____. Of course, her name was never mentioned in the play.
12. The scene where Present takes Scrooge to witness the meal with the poor family was not in the script. Why does the wife say she does not want to go to the parish poorhouse? _____
_____
13. The phantom ghost (Ghost of Yet-to-Come) cannot speak, but in the movie it makes a _____ sound as if it were to speak.
14. Unlike in the play, the phantom takes Scrooge to his own _____. A dead body is lying on the bed; Scrooge refuses to check to see who the dead body belongs to.
15. Scrooge does not fully realize that he is witnessing the shadows of his own _____, which was to occur that very evening. (1:13)
