

“Demeter and Persephone” by Anne Terry White

Vocabulary

1. Asunder – apart; separate from each other
2. Realm – a region which is ruled by a king
3. Defies – openly resists; appears to challenge
4. Monarch – a king; ruler
5. Pangs – extreme pain
6. Quiver – a case for carrying arrows
7. Strewed – to scatter; to cast or throw loosely
8. Girdle – a belt
9. Trident – a spear with three points
10. Nymph – a goddess of the mountains, forests, meadows or water. They live for about 100 years.
11. Wafted – floated along
12. Prospered – flourished; hearty
13. Toiled – to work or exert pain
14. Intervene – to come between; to help find a solution
15. Pomegranate - red fruit with many small seeds; said to be the food of the underworld