

Name _____ Date _____

Text Features Presentation Questions

Answer the questions according to the information provided in the Text Features Slides Presentation & based on what you learn.

1. List two reasons informational text may include text features:

A.

B.

2. List 2 of the benefits that text features can provide for readers:

A.

B.

3. What does a subtitle do?

4. Where would you find the appendix of a book?

5. What purpose does a Table of Contents serve?

6. Using the Table of Contents page on Slide 7, list any chapter titles that may include a recipe for cinnamon bread:

7. On slide 8, the Table of Contents indicates the book contains how many pages on cats?

8. According to the index on slide 10, what pages should you reference if looking for information on author F. Scott Fitzgerald?

9. List two differences between a Table of Content and Index.

A.

B.

10. When using an index, what does the phrase See Also indicate?

11. What information may a sidebar provide for the reader?

12. How can the reader determine if the text is a heading or a subheading?

13. What is the difference between a diagram and an illustration?

14. Why are photos and illustrations used in nonfiction:

15. What is a caption?

16. According to the graphic on slide 28, where do most injuries occur in males participating in high school football, hockey, and wrestling?

17. According to the graph on slide 29, which of the following issues did 55% of the surveyed teens identify as major?

- A. Drinking Alcohol
 - B. Gangs
 - C. Bullying
 - D. Drug Addiction
-

18. Text Feature Challenge One (Slide 36)

List the text features from this article's excerpt:

19. Text Feature Challenge Two (Slide 37)

List the text features from this article's excerpt:

20. Text Feature Challenge Three (Slide 38):

List the text features from this article's excerpt:
