

Name _____ Date _____

The Great Klondike Gold Rush Documentary – Part One

1. The City of _____ has long played a crucial role as the center of trade and transport. It has been largely been impacted by the role it played in the Great Klondike Gold Rush of the late _____.
2. July of 1897 with the arrival of the ship Portland in the docks of Seattle carried _____ miners and more than a ton of _____.
3. The Panic of _____ which was the worst recession the country had seen to date.
4. Coming out of a recession the Gold Rush gave people a little bit of _____.
5. Ports in Seattle and _____ were in a battle to be the premiere outfitter for the trek north. And _____ won the war.
6. According to a quote, if you wanted to be a part of the Klondike Gold Rush you needed to be prepared with about a _____ worth of provisions.
7. About _____ people came thru Seattle and got geared up to head north.
8. Klondicitis was spreading like a _____. Rational people left their jobs and got caught up in the movement.
9. As one author called them, these were risk takers and gamblers and _____.
10. Within 10 days of the SS Portland's arrival, _____ miners had already set course to the Great White North.
11. The population of Seattle _____ in 1900 -1910 from 80,000 to 240,000.
12. The most popular route to the gold fields was by _____ up to the Skagway area. Then you have an overland portion you have to hike either 32 or 40 miles to Bennett British Columbia, where you can get on to the Yukon River. From Bennett to the gold fields is _____ miles approximately.
13. Skagway is known as the Gateway to the _____. It acted as a base camp for provisions.
- 14 Two trails to the gold mines were from Skagway at 40 miles and from Dyea, it was _____ miles.
15. Once stampedeers made it to Skagway, they had about _____ miles to carry about a _____ of supplies.